

Literary Devices

Name: _____

Date: _____

(narrative nonfiction) Amy Tan - "Fish Cheeks"

Select the literary device that you think are illustrated in the story.

- | | | | |
|---------------------------------------|------------------------------------|--|---------------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Alliteration | <input type="checkbox"/> Hyperbole | <input type="checkbox"/> Simile | <input type="checkbox"/> Euphemism |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Allusion | <input type="checkbox"/> Irony | <input type="checkbox"/> Onomatopoeia | <input type="checkbox"/> Imagery |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Analogy | <input type="checkbox"/> Metaphor | <input type="checkbox"/> Personification | <input type="checkbox"/> Strong Verbs |

Conflict

Para.#/Pg. Evidence of the literary device in story Explanation of the type of device. How does its use affect your interpretation.
