

A SCHOOL

F. J. LEVERT

Tenders his services to the citizens of Huntsville and its vicinity, as a teacher. He has taken a large and convenient house in Huntsville, in which his school will commence on the 10th of January –

The course of tuition will comprise, the English and French languages, Mathematics, Arithmetic, Geography with mapping, History, and Belles Lettres, and the principles of Moral Philosophy. Pupils of both sexes will be received, but the school divided into two separate and distinct departments. Miss MARIA V LEVERT will take charge of the female, and FJL of the male department for the mental improvement and moral department of each. FJL considers himself responsible. Mrs. ANN L. LEVERT will receive 15 or 20 boarders. Terms as follow

Tuition fees $80, Board, (the boarders furnishing their own bedding and candles) $120, for the school term of 10 months; payable quarterly in advance.

Huntsville, Dec 12, 1818 13th

transcript

Vocabulary

Tenders: an offer to carry out work at a stated fixed price

Convenient: fitting in well with a person's needs, activities, and plans

Commence: begin; start

Belles Lettres: literature regarded as a fine art; light, entertaining, and elegant literature

Moral Philosophy: the area of philosophy concerned with theories of ethics, with how we ought to live our lives.

Moral deportment: the manner in which a person behaves and presents oneself.